HAVE A

BLOOD RELATION

IN KOREA

OCTOBER 31 IS DATE SET FOR CAMPUS KOREAN BLOOD DRIVE

By HUBERTA WILLIAMS

Next Friday, October 31, a one-day blood drive will be held on campus. Jack Mansfield, chairman of the drive, has announced that a Red Cross group will be at the COP gym from 1-6 on that day. Goal for the drive has been set at 300 pints of blood; enrollment at Pacific is approximately 1000.

The slogan, "Have a Blood Relation in Korea" has been adopted for the drive. Whether or not to give blood is an individual decision and no intramural contest is involved.

Students under 18 years of age may not be blood donors and those between the ages of 18-21 must have permission from their parents. Permission blanks are available at the PSA office, for off-campus students. Representatives of the various living groups are taking pledges and will give the names of those pledging to Jack Mansfield, who will set up an appointment schedule. Mansfield reports that the Red Cross can take 60 pints of blood an hour.

The representatives of the living groups are as follows: West and South Hall: Donna Betz; Tau Kappa Kappa: Ricky Carstens; Alpha Theta Tau: Barbara Toller; Epsilon Lambda Sigma: Paula Hayward; Mu Zeta Rho: Betty Jacinto; Zeta Phi: Nadine Reasoner; Rho Lambda Phi: Chuck Tolhurst; Alpha Kappa Phi: Keith Baker; Omega Phi Alpha: Dave Gilbert; North Hall and Quonsets: Bob Ching; Manor Hall: Geoff Thomas.

Students are requested not to eat any fatty food before they donate blood. The following are suggestions for foods that can be eaten: Clear broth, dry toast, roast beef, fruit or vegetable salad without dressing, fruit juices, coffee or tea without cream or milk.

A donor may give blood every three months. Members of all races are accepted. Persons who have had infectious jaundice are not acceptable as donors.

The Red Cross does not sell blood to anyone. All blood received by the Red Cross is donated and the Defense Department pays the costs of processing and shipping blood. The organization has no authority over use of the blood by the Defense Department.

Pan Hel Rush Silence Begins Next Monday

Panhellenic Sorority rushing for the fall semester began yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock with an orientation meeting.

Sign up for rushing continues in the Deans' office until Monday, October 27, at 4:15. Women who did not attend the orientation meeting may still sign up with the Dean of Women and attend the rushing functions.

Thursday evening, October 30, will be the Opening Rushing Tea. An informal invitational Coke Date will follow Saturday afternoon, November 1. Informal dinners will be held at the separate houses throughout the next week. Monday, November 10, will be pledging in the individual houses.

Open bidding privileges will be drastically curtailed this semester.

Radio Pacific Reopens To Operate As KCVN, AM-FM Combined Sta.

Radio station KCVN AM will open at 6 p.m. Monday, October 27. Engineers, including Jerry Bogle, Keith Baker, George Symons, and Roger Klarer, have been working on a new control board, and new lines to the living groups for improved reception.

Programs on the campus station will be directed toward student listeners. Among programs scheduled are: "Pacific Previews" with Nadine Reasoner; Jeanne Hardie's "International Conversation"; and "Football Prophet" with Dave Gilbert.

Disc jockey shows, with Keith Baker, Dick Lafferty, Bob Steres, and Jim Lehmen spinning the records, will be presented from 10 to 11 every night.

News reports of both world and campus events will be given at various times.

Senate Loosens Purse Strings A Moment

The COP Senate has approved a temporary allotment to campus publications.

One thousand dollars has been appropriated for the Pacific Weekly, and 100 dollars for the Naranjado, the funds having been allotted in order to carry the publications over until the regular sum has been decided on.

The amount of the final appropriation will not be known for some time.

Pacific-SC Play Host To Young Journalists

COP and Stockton College will play host to high school and junior college journalists who attend the semi-annual San Joaquin Valley Scholastic Press Association conference here tomorrow.

Over 150 students from San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Tuolumne counties have registered to attend this event which is designed to spur the interest of students in journalism and instruct them on new publication practices which are used in other schools.

The conference will begin at 9:30 a.m. with registration in the conservatory lobby. Following registration there will be a general assembly in the auditorium with John Fanucchi, publications advisor of Stockton College, presiding. Dr. Tully C. Knoles of College of Pacific and Dr. Burke Bradley of Stockton College will give welcoming addresses.

Seminars on the various phases of journalism will be held from 10:30 to 12:15. The meetings will be on business management, yearbooks, sports reporting, editing the school newspaper and news, feature and editorial writing. During this time there will also be a special faculty round table discussion.

The group will have luncheon in Anderson Hall at 12:30 and Avery Kizer of the Stockton Record will be the speaker.

In the afternoon a tour will be conducted through the Record plant.

The College of Pacific will play host to the students and their advisors in the evening, providing tickets to the COP-San Diego Navy football game for all those who are able to stay for the event.

Otwell, Other Speakers Here To Pose Question 'Religion, So What?'

By CORALITA CARLSON

"Can a person be 'Religious' and still live a happy, well-adjusted life and have 'fun'? Is there a place for religious principle and practice in the life of the college student?"

Religious Emphasis Period, which runs from next Sunday through Wednesday, attempts to answer these two questions for you.

-- Remember, You Guys You Promised --

The following statement was issued by the Interfraternity Council October 10 concerning alcoholic beverages at various fraternity functions:

1. The fraternities will not permit the serving of alcoholic beverages at any fraternity function either on or off campus.

2. The fraternities will not tolerate "individual drinking" at off-campus or after-campus events.

3. One or more faculty members will be invited to all fraternity open houses.

4. The fraternities will not permit the serving of alcoholic beverages during or after initiation activities.

5. The administrative officers of the fraternities will be held responsible for the enforcement of the above provisions.

(Signed) George Moscone, Rhizomia Lee Kaupke, Omega Phi Don Tafjen, Archania

In reply to this, the administrative committee issued this statement:

"The fraternities are to be commended for their plans to deal with the drinking problem at their various functions on and off campus. The attached statement impresses us as being the result of some real thinking about fraternity life and its relationship to the larger life of the college.

"The College of the Pacific accepts students from many walks of life. Though the college makes every attempt to attract students whose personal conduct is good, it does not require of them pledges of abstinence, rather it provides the setting where a social occasion can be and is a success without the accompaniment of drinking.

NONE AT ALL

It requests that there be no drinking on campus or at any college event and that students not be on campus under the effects of alcohol. The statement of the interfraternity council in effect supports this policy.

"We are informing you of this action in order that you may give the fraternity leaders the full measure of your support. If alumni, faculty, administration, and undergraduate pull together on this problem, we may rightly expect fraternities to be even more effective campus organizations."

(Signed) EDWARD S. BETZ Dean of Men

All other activities are being cancelled for these four days, and the PSA and all other organizations on campus are sponsoring this program to stress what religious implications of living can mean to COP students.

The program will begin with a mass meeting in the conservatory on Sunday night when Dr. Herbert Otwell of the Pacific School of Religion will speak. Dr. Otwell, who is to be the principal speaker of Religious Emphasis Week, will also speak at Tuesday chapel, the Senate meeting and at various group discussions with organizations and living groups.

DISCUSSION

One of the highlights of the four-day program will be the informal discussion period on Tuesday evening. At this time each living group will host a visiting speaker who will lead an informal discussion session based on students' questions.

Other meetings scheduled are the closing vesper service, panel discussions and programs sponsored by different religious groups on campus and bull-sessions at 4:30 p.m. in the Anderson Y.

COMMITTEEMEN

The following is a list of all committee chairmen who worked on the program for Religious Emphasis Period: Doris Hitch, Sunday evening mass meeting; Earl Flegel, afternoon programs; Ed Womack, Monday evening programs; Marty Kostal, Tuesday chapel; Dave Wayne and Jenean Frane, Wednesday vespers; Ursula Herrick, general promotion; Don Cunningham, "Go to church followup"; Phil Wogaman, general committee chairman; Marian Gercke, general committee secretary; Dr. Al Painter, director; Miss Harriet Sheldon, faculty; Dean Berthoff, Dean Monroe, and Dean Betz, administration.

This is the scheduled program for the four-day period. Informal discussions, etc., will be added according to the convenience of the participants.

Dr. Otwell, the main speaker, will speak at a mass meeting in the conservatory on Sunday evening. (Continued on Page 2)

Dr. Ding Undergoes Critical Operation

Last Wednesday Dr. Edwin Ding, Professor of Economics, went to St. Joseph's Hospital to undergo a very serious operation. He is expected to remain in the hospital for a minimum of eight days and will then be convalescing at home for a month.

'BISHOP MISBEHAVES' OPENED FIVE NITE RUN ON CAMPUS

The first Pacific Theatre production of the year, "The Bishop Misbehaves," opened last night in the first of five scheduled performances.

Combining the abilities of many seasoned Pacific actors and the talent of the author, Fredrick Jackson, "The Bishop" provides a full evening of light-hearted entertainment.

Members of the cast and the characters they portray are: Bill Sibley, the Bishop of Broadminister; Bobbie Address, the Bishop's sister; Larry Berscheid, Red Eagan; Marshall Breeden, Mr. Brooke; Ray Fry, Guy Waller; Marge Kenny, Mrs. Waller; Dick Merrifield, Donald Meadows; Barbara Moore, Hester Grantham; Bill Primrose, Collins; and Rudy Solari Frenchy.

DeMarcus Brown directed the play, Anthony Reid designed the sets and Art Dull was the stage manager.

The play will run tonight and Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of next week; curtain time is 8:30. PSA members should present their cards at the theatre box office for the reserved seat tickets which were included in the PSA Card price this year.

He said, 'When our daughter gets married, I won't think of it as losing a daughter, I'll think of it as gaining a bathroom.'

The fact is that young ladies seem to be naturally prone to look their best. But with young men it's different — they're just naturally "prone".

However even in the prone position our slacks are "right".

New Shows Are Aired on KCVN

KCVN, your campus station, located at 660 on your radio dial, will present college shows aimed at campus interests.

"Pacific Previews," produced by Nadine Reasoner, will be heard each Monday night giving a resume of the coming week's doings and highlighting certain events by having guests speak in behalf of their groups. The first show featured Homecoming with guests Diane Strand covering the dance, Barney Nelson queen contest, and Chuck Tolhurst the parade and the activities of the game.

"Meet the Deans," a Jim Spight production, has featured both Miss Harriett Monroe and Mr. Ed Betz, with Geoff Thomas, Bob Steres, Bev Borror, and Jeanne Hardie in discussions on fraternity and sorority rushing.

Students from other countries are presented on "An International Conversation," produced by Jeanne Hardie. Ray Salisbury, recently from London, England, is the first featured COP student.

KCVN programming will include all forms of musical shows, personality record shows, campus news, national and local sports news, and special events.

Speech Classes Work On Election Issues

As the national election looms closer, discussions around campus concerning "Ike" and Adlai grow more intense and heated.

However in Mr. Granville Baye's speech classes, students are industriously attempting to look at both sides of the subject in an objective manner. They are endeavoring to establish what is of greater benefit to the American public.

Each member of the class has selected a subject such as Social Security or Natural Resources and has gathered all possible material put out by each party, periodicals and other literature, and interviewing faculty members.

After research is completed, the student speaker will present the viewpoints of both groups, without disclosing the names of the parties connected. When all the speeches have been presented, a poll will be taken on all the issues.

ing at 8:00 p.m. Following the mass meeting, the Newman Club will sponsor a reception for Dr. Otwell in the Anderson Y.

Several small meetings are being planned for Monday. The Christian Science group will meet in the chapel at 5:00 p.m.; a "joint Y meeting" will have a discussion period with Dr. Otwell from 6:00 to 7:30; and the senate will hear him at 7:30. The C.S.T.A. plans to have a panel on "Moral and Spiritual Values in Education" and other groups may yet outline similar programs for Monday night.

Tuesday chapel will feature Dr. Otwell speaking and the music of the A Cappella Choir. In the evening each living group will have its discussion with an outside speaker.

The Religious Emphasis Period will culminate with a vesper program in the chapel at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday evening.

Attention, credential candidates:

Next Thursday, October 30 is the last time the ACE test will be given. All transfer students who have missed the first test are requested to appear for the final one.

colleges and universities throughout the free world.

The WUS program, directed mainly at South Asia this year — Pakistan, the Republic of Indonesia, and Thailand — is based on the principle of self-help. It is not a charity project. Students are helped to help themselves.

Dr. Alexander Miller of the Stanford University department of religion opened the conference with an address: "The University in a World in Revolution." Richard Weisman, Stanford Student Body President, and Peter Cunliffe of U.C. co-chaired the conference.

Mrs. Roberta Evans Wilson reported on the WUS Technical Assistance Conference held in Deland, Holland, this summer. Representatives of the American Association for the United Nations and of the American Friends Service Committee also attended the conference. Along with them were foreign students from Europe, India, and Indonesia, who were present to report directly upon educational conditions in their countries.

FILM REVIEWED

A special feature for WUS delegates was a preview of the film "Their Future is Our Future," to be released in November. The film was narrated by its producer, director, Baron Geza de Rosne, former Hungarian Olympic star.

The major purpose of the conference was to acquaint the delegates with the program of non-partisan WUS which is made possible largely through the support of students and professors of American colleges and universities. This program, launched in 1937 to aid students in Nationalist China, is now operating in 30 countries as a channel for university development and assistance around the world.

Don and Kane had another reason for their trip. They were sent to discover the most efficient way to conduct a WUS drive on campus, and to educate the campus in the worth of the program.

Last year the WUS carnival was a Mardi Gras weekend event. Pacific managed $74, while Yale Divinity School in a similar drive raised $7,000.

Mental Health Is Conference Subject

A conference on mental health problems will be held at College of Pacific on Saturday, Nov. 1, under the auspices of the San Joaquin County Mental Health Society and the Pacific Clinical Services.

Dr. Oliver E. Byrd of Stanford University is the principal guest speaker and will address the opening session on "Understanding Common Emotional Need."

In addition to the opening session there will be a series of special films on common mental health problems shown as a basis for the group discussion. A panel of 21 leaders will serve as chairmen and consultants for these discussions.

The workshop and conference is for parents, teachers, social workers and anyone else who is interested in the positive aspects of mental health.

Roz' Return Marks End Of Courageous Battle

By PAT LAMB

Yes, she's really got what it takes.

Last February Roz Sloss, one of the busiest little gals on campus, contracted polio. Before she had a chance to decide what had happened, she was bed-ridden and paralyzed from the neck down.

It would be hard for any of us to give up our life of average activity, but it was doubly hard for Roz to leave her interests and school. That summer she had spent working with the drama department at the Fallon House Theatre in Columbia; she had just finished one of the comedy roles in "Goodbye My Fancy." She was working on her own dog training class, and she was planning a busy year at radio station KCVN.

In the beginning her doctors weren't sure that she would ever walk again; in fact, at first they weren't sure what to call the disease that had paralyzed her.

However, throughout her whole confinement, Roz' courage was her biggest asset. She was determined to get well. Friends who visited her or wrote to her were impressed with her cheerfulness, her ever-present sense of humor and ability to make jokes about herself and the nuisances of her confined condition.

Roz' cheerful determination won out in the end. For last September she re-entered COP and started back to her classes — just seven months after she was stricken with polio. It would seem a miraculous recovery; yet not so miraculous if you know Roz.

Her schedule list isn't as full as she'd like it to be, and she has to rest a little more than she wants to, but she's back again and building up her activities. She is assisting on radio shows at KCVN and is starting her dog training class again. Her own collie won a championship while she was recovering. She is the senior representative on West Hall's council. Her future looks very bright, and we wish her all the luck in the world.

BLOOD FOR KOREA NEXT WEEK

FOR A LONG TIME we've suspected that today's college man would no longer "gladly die for dear old Siwash." Neither does he play ukuleles and sing "Alma Mater" at the drop of a beanie.

We believe, too, that when it comes to sportshirts the college man is no different from his older brother in town. He doesn't go for fads and screwball styles. But he does go for smartness, good workmanship... and above all, value.

That is why we believe you'll like the new selection of sportshirts by Manhattan®. For they have all these qualities, plus a distinctive air that sets them above the ordinary shirt.

So ask for Manhattan... the college man's sportshirt.

THESE HANDS ARE PRICELESS!

They protect the American way of life... our homes, our freedoms, our future.

These Hands, sensitively trained to respond acutely to the commands of an alert mind and courageous heart, are the hands of a United States Air Force Pilot.

The skillful touch of these hands attunes the blasting speed of modern jet aircraft to effective missions in discouraging any enemy. These hands are supremely capable of flying and fighting these machines with devastating effect.

These Hands belong to young, spirited American men (not supermen) who desire to live unmolested in a free America... who want to enjoy the same rights and opportunities open to all real American people.

These Hands belong to our sons—yours and mine. Youths who must decide today how they can share in defense of our nation and also better themselves. To insure greater chances of their success, today's college men should be encouraged to complete their education and then serve their country best by enlisting as Aviation Cadets in the U. S. Air Force.

Theirs is the choice of becoming either a Pilot or Aircraft Observer. After graduation as Second Lieutenants in the U. S. Air Force, they wear the silver wings of flying executives and begin earning nearly $5300 a year.

These Hands represent a man ready to qualify for this tremendous task because he is between the ages of 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in excellent physical condition, especially eyes, ears, heart and teeth. He possesses at least two years of college and the inherent urge to fly.

These Hands shape the destiny of America... the difference between our survival and oblivion. The U. S. Air Force needs the hands, the minds and the hearts of young Americans who desire to make the American way a greater way of peace and happiness for all.

THE FLEET'S IN

NAVY READY FOR BENGALS S. D. BOASTS STAR STUDDED LINEUP

By NORM HARRIS

The Fleets In! This saying will be readily realized by many people tomorrow night when they view the 1952 edition of the San Diego Naval Training Center football team in action. A fleet of big, experienced linemen, followed by a host of sharp-running, good-passing backs and ably-coached by Tay Brown who coached Compton Junior College teams to eight conference crowns and three mythical national titles. Last year, he coached the Naval Training Center team to its first 11th Naval District crown besides breaking even with his college opponents. His teams romped over San Jose State and Loyola of Los Angeles while losing only to undefeated University of San Francisco and perennially potent University of Southern California.

The Bluejacket team is very strong, having a wealth of experienced men to choose from and led by such top men as Bucky Curtis, 215 lb. 6' 3", end from Vanderbilt, and George Pelonis, 190 lbs. 6' 2" end from University of California. At tackles they have Ben Lardizabal, 220 lb. former Southern California Trojan and Russ Faulkinberry, 237 lb. tackle from Vanderbilt college, who was placed on All Southeastern conference team for 1950 and 1951. Guards will be ably manned by Bill Ward, 225-pounder from University of Arkansas and Bob Zelinka 190 pounder from U. C. L. A. At center Mickey Adza, 215 pound former Santa Clara will probably get the starting nod.

PRO BACKFIELD

The starting quarterback will be Southpaw Wilbur Robertsan, former USC passing great, halfbacks will be Odie Poser, negro All-American from the L.A. Rams and Jim Waddell from Compton College. At fullback will be stocky Jim Monachino former California Bear who placed honorable mention All-American and first string all-coast in 1951.

This starting lineup is backed up by such men as George Musacco, former fullback at Loyola University; Bill Powers, three-year letterman halfback from USC; Werner Erscher and Burt Tilbs, both two-year lettermen linebackers from UCLA; Bob Boyd 9.5 100 yard dash man who also played offensive end for the Los Angeles Rams during the 1951 season; Dewey McCormnell 1951 All-American defensive end from University of Wyoming and a host of other excellent men.

The Bluejacket team has men from California, UCLA, USC, Southern Methodist, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Oregon, and various other college teams, and also about eight men who have played pro-football for such teams as L.A. Rams, S.F. 49'ers and N.Y. Yankees.

WON 4 LOST 2

The Navy team goes into the game tomorrow night with two losses in six games losing only to the Los Angeles Rams and USC Trojans. The Bluejackets out-gained and out-downed the Trojans but could not find a way to out-score the Trojans. The Bluejackets have had a two-week layoff in preparation for College of Pacific and they are decidedly eager to knock off Pacific.

COP is looking forward to the game for if the Tigers can vanquish their military foes they again will be rated as one of the top Independents. The Tigers need this one, the Bluejackets want this one, so look for a terrific game tomorrow night.

TOM MCCORMICK AWARDED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

By WATTY

Because of his outstanding running against San Jose State last week, Tom McCormick was chosen Player of the Week at the Monday evening meeting of the Quarterback Club.

Accepting his gifts very graciously, one of which was a beautiful wrist watch, Tom looked around the room at the 200 people who turned up at the meeting. This time it wasn't the usually jovial Tom who spoke — it was a very serious and slightly fired-up Tom.

"I've heard talk going around that San Diego Navy is gonna walk all over us this weekend," he said. "Well, I'm going to tell you people one thing — we're not afraid of them, so why should you be?"

"While it's true that injuries will weaken us slightly, you're going to see a real cat-fight out there Saturday night and if our boys have anything to say about it, we're going to win this one."

A few sheepish grins were exhibited through the crowd as Tom was given a thunderous ovation.

At the football coaches' luncheon in San Francisco Monday, Bob Bronyan, San Jose Coach, described Tommy as "an All-American if there ever was one."

Quoth the Spartan coach, "I've watched McCormick in action for three years now, and he has everything it takes to be an All-American. He can play defense, run like a crazy man; he's a team leader; he can pass and kick and his spirit is phenomenal."

Of course, this isn't letting the Tigerville fans in on something they didn't already know. Around here we think of "Terrible Tom" as the best ever, and so, evidently, do the Los Angeles Rams. It was last year to go, that they drafted him for their professional juggernaut in 1953.

It's hard for a football player, no matter how good he is, to make an All-American rating if he's from a small school. After the Eddie Le Baron ballyhoo, valley fans have seen that. It takes publicity and plenty of it. So, if this writer and the Weekly, in its small way, can put Tom McCormick on the road to being an All-American, our goal will be achieved.

The Tigers have many men on the injured list. Out for this week's game and possibly more, are End Wes Mitchell, End Harland Berndt, Tackle Burt Delavan, and Safety Man Jim Powell.

Hampered with minor injuries are Bill Kelley with a bad ankle and Gordy Johnson with no teeth.

Freshmen Pigskinners Beat San Jose 18-2

With quarterback Bill Jacobs connecting on 14 out of 26 passes, the Pacific Frosh pigskinners rolled over and through the San Jose State yearlings by a score of 18-2. On the first play of the scrimmage Jacobs faked a handoff to Lynn Swanson who stopped at the line of scrimmage. As the referee, who was faked on the handoff to Swanson, was blowing his whistle to the play halfback Wills was loping 60 yards to a touchdown which was called back.

Using the platoon system, the Bengals had too much Tiger for the Staters. It was V. who hit pay dirt twice for the Tigers and Ron Byrnes, who suffered a slight concussion, scored the other. The Spartans scored their two points when they nailed Jacobs in the End Zone.

Captains for the game were Denis McDaniel and Byron Wilmoth and although every player played an excellent game the standing players were guard J. Witter and safety Al Culp.

BLOCK P MEETING

In its first meeting of the year ten letter winners were initiated into the Block P Club. The business of the day other than initiation was the election of officers for the coming year.

Following were elected to office: Tom McCormick, president; D. Batten, vice-president; Walt Batten, secretary; Ron Leineke and Jim Streeter, executive committee.

After elections Buzzy Kaas, outgoing president, turned the meeting over to the newly elected McCormick. Desire to make Block P a more active organization on campus is one of McCormick's big aims.

Water Poloists Win

Take 2nd In a Row

The COP Tigers water polo squad gained their second win in a row on October 20 by dumping the Santa Clara Broncos 12-0 in the Bronco's tank. Scoring at will the water Tigers never exerted themselves. The Bon-Bon brothers scored seven of the goals. Walt making 5 and Jim throwing in 2.

Last Saturday the Tigers trounced the California Maritime Academy of Vallejo 11-5 in the home pool. The Bengals showed their water supremacy over the Vallejo boys before a crowd full of homecoming grads. Every man on the team scored with the exception of goalie Jerry Smith.

As this story went to press the Tigers were slated to play Monday J.C. at the Pirate pool Wednesday and will host the strong Olympic Club tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the home plunge. This game will give a good test of the Tigers' water polo strength.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

COP EDGED BY SAN JOSE 26 - 21

Aplanalp Stars, As COP Pass Defense Weak

Will Bengals Quit? ?

By ED KAHN

COP suffered a double loss last Saturday night to the San Jose State Spartans, 26-21, not only on the scoreboard, but in their hearts and bodies as well.

This disheartening defeat was handed them in the waning seconds of the game, apparently after they thought, as did the fans, they had the game wrapped up.

HEARTSTOPPER

The game had all the earmarks of a Bill Stern Sportscast, as Roy Hiram, the boy who fumbled a punt to set up what looked like the Bengal's winning touchdown, scored with only 24 seconds remaining, to give his teammates a hard-fought victory.

The Tigers could scarcely believe their loss, as they stood on the field after the game counting and recounting the points on the scoreboard. But it was there in black and white.

And then the Tigers had some more counting to do. In licking their wounds, they found that their fur was torn and ragged. Injured in the fray were many key men, who will probably miss the San Diego Navy game.

WILL TIGERS GIVE UP?

Will the Tiger no longer fight as they did last season after losing to Denver U? This is the big question, with even a bigger question mark. Everyone remembers how Pacific was on their way to a successful season, up to that fatal tilt. Four quarters of hard-fought ball found the Pac-Cats on the short end of a 35-33 score.

The rest is history: what was thought to be an even battle turned out to be a runaway, with USF running circles around the Tigers, in the game following Denver. And then the Spartans, oh that name again, finished their season, and ours too, with a stunning 7-0 upset.

FIVE TOUGH ONES

And now the Tigers are in the middle of their season with five tough games looming up, and a post-season tilt to boot. Some might wonder if the Bengals will be deserving of the Hawaii trip if they fold a la last season.

Needless to say, it's up to the COP reserves to give the team a will to win.

It is agreed by all that the Bengal lads did fight tooth and nail with the Spartans, but it is also agreed that the Bengals could have been sharper on their blocking and tackling.

NAVY FIRST HARD ONE

Tomorrow night's game with San Diego Navy will prove a point, one way or another. COP will have to play the best brand of ball they ever have played if they hope to defeat this Navy outfit, and even if they do play well they still might lose, as San Diego lays claim to one of the best units on the coast. Knowing that a loss is quite possible, is Pacific likely to quit? If they do, their major league status goes down the drain along with their will to win.

So, you Orange and Black Tigers, WILL YOU COME BACK? Our answer will be in the stadium tomorrow night.

Intramural Golf

Sign-up Now

If you know how to use the business end of a golf club, make sure you are signed up for the coming intramural tournament. Don't hesitate too long, for he who hesitates is lost. The sign-up deadline is at present set for the first of November.

As yet only eight people have indicated that they are interested. North Hall has generated the greatest amount of enthusiasm, posting four entries: Art Wilson, Al Culp, Tony Geramia, and Ed Dean. Omega Phi and Rhizomia follow with three apiece. The Phoo's have listed Lee Tucker, Bob Doan, and Walt Baun, while Rhizomia has listed Chuck Tolhurst, Ira Blalock, and Reginald Carnie. Archania at this time has no entrants.

Dr. Voltmer of the P.E. department would like to see all people interested in improving their golf game out on the green. The larger the field the better. Play will be held on the new Swenson course north of the campus.

The reward for a first place will be an intramural belt-buckle.

A second will be good for a medal, and all will be rewarded with the enjoyment of having participated in a good, clean, competitive contest. So come on, sign up, and enjoy yourself.

Ex COP Gridders In Pro Ball

Taking a quick rundown on how former COP footballers are faring with the play-for-money boys,

Before resigning as head coach of the Los Angeles Rams, Joe Stydahar classed Duane Putnam as the best rookie he has this year.

Jack "Moose" Myers, former Pacific mentor, is still banging away as first string fullback for the Rams.

Through some misunderstanding, Keever Jankovich was cut from the Cleveland Brown squad, but his ability was not long to go unrecognized as he was quickly signed by the Dallas Texans, who incidentally, just released Sid Hall.

Eddie Macon and Bob Moser are teammates once more, as they both are hustling on the Chicago Bears' Defensive unit.

And last but not least, All-American Eddie LeBaron has the thankless job of piloting the highly undermanned Washington Redskins.

You might also be interested in knowing that "little" COP has had more football players drafted than any other college in the nation.

BASKETBALL STARTS

By BUD WATKINS

Basketball at COP swung into the second week of informal practice with the Bengals running through ball handling drill and conditioning exercises.

Thus far, guards Gene Sosnick, JC All-American in 1950, and Geoff Thomas, student-body high potentate, are showing up well. Forwards Buzz Kahn and Lee Kaupke and center Kane Waggoner are also looking sharp.

Though there are no definite combinations or strings assigned as yet, here are a few of the boys who will be seeing a lot of action this year.

Forward Buzz Kahn reported for practice Monday after being on the sidelines for two weeks with a muscle injury. The addition of the six foot letterman will greatly aid the Tigers.

Gene Sosnick, mighty mite of COP basketball, will more than likely be the "quarterback" in the Tigers system of play. The five-foot seven-inch guard was the second leading scorer on the Bengal squad. His jump shot, off a fake is one of the hardest to stop.

Guard Dale Clipper is a strong rebounder, and coupled with 6' 5" Eldon Kidd at center, the Tigers may be a trifle rugged under those backboards this year.

Pacific Coast Football At A Glance

By GENE SOSNICK

Last week's thriller saw Paul Cameron's UCLA Bruins take the Stanford Indians 24-14. Cal didn't waste much effort in downing hapless Santa Clara. Southern California shutout Oregon State as expected. Down in Tigerville, renewing the annual rivalry in the Valley Bowl, a surprising San Jose State eleven led by QB Lynn Aplanalp turned the tables on College of Pacific as they pulled a victory out of the hat in the last 24 seconds with Hawaiian-born Roy Hiram racing 39 yards to pay dirt to break the Tigers' back.

GAME OF THE WEEK

Cal, one of the greatest offensive ballclubs in the nation, takes on USC, one of the greatest defensive units in the nation. To most fans this game looks to be a toss-up. The winner of this one may possibly and probably be the representative of the Pacific Coast in the Rose Bowl January 1st.

UCLA faces very potent Wisconsin in what should be a real battle. UCLA is undefeated and has a good crack at the roses in Pasadena. Wisconsin upset by Ohio State in a close, was the Big Ten favorite; they still look like the choice of the Big Ten. The Bruins' great tailback, Paul Cameron, may see limited action tomorrow so he may be at full strength when UCLA invades Berkeley next week.

DOWN ON THE FARM

Stanford faces Washington tomorrow. The Huskies are fresh from their 49 to 0 slaughter over Oregon, and it might be a better game than expected. Washington boasts the best passer in the nation in Don Heinrich.

Washington State and Oregon State will battle it out in a game that is rated a toss-up.

INDEPENDENTS

College of Pacific will go up against the strongest service team in the country as they meet the San Diego Navy in Stockton. The navy boasts many college stars andpros, plus plenty of weight.

Santa Clara plays Idaho and the Broncos should post their first win of the season.

San Jose State will be idle tomorrow preparing for their tough one against Stanford.

NEW BIBLE SPEAKS OUR LANGUAGE

When the King James version of the Bible came out in 1611, it was considered to be an accurate translation, contemporary to the times. But this is no longer 1611.

Words such as "let," that meant "prohibit" then, have a different meaning now. The Bible didn't change with the times as did language. So it became necessary to rewrite the historical book.

After a decade of writing and rewriting by the country's foremost scholars, the new edition has finally been published. It contains all of the facts that are found in the King James version but this edition is more easily understood because it "speaks our language."

English Drama Student Overwhelmed By U.S.

By SHIRLEY DYKE

Miss Ray Salisbury, recently from London, England, is our feature foreign student of the week. She is a freshman drama student, and chose Pacific for its excellent drama department.

Ray, who has only been in the United States for eight weeks, was overwhelmed by the largeness of this country. She was also quite amazed by the amount of food that we have. In England several items are still rationed such as meat, all fats, candy, eggs, bacon, bananas, milk and several other items. The prices here in the United States are 3 to 4 times more expensive.

Ray thinks that the education in England is much more difficult. Also, there are not nearly so many outside activities. She feels that the slum areas in England are much worse than ours. The homes in the United States have much more room than those in England.

Our drive-in motor movies were most surprising to her. They have no such things as our drug stores and juke-boxes, and she was greatly surprised upon seeing them. Ray reports that the English are more conservative in dancing, but quite a bit of our popular music has been imported to England. When she left England, "High Noon" was one of their most popular and most heard records.

Ray has a definite English accent, but she has not had too much difficulty with our "slang." She has had trouble, however, pronouncing her "r's". This is her first visit to the United States, and she reports that everyone has been much friendlier than she anticipated. Ray likes Pacific very much, and Pacific likes Ray Salisbury from England.

Campus Fads

By RUSTY AND LOU

Your Nylons . . .

We don't have to say that nylon shirts have become popular this year. The most popular of the nylon family is the nylon seersucker shirt, made of either the big seers or the little seers, and if you wear one you'll be a sucker.

The nylon shirts can be worn beautifully and also can be worn on you. (They look better that way.) You can buy these nylons in various colors, such as: Infra-Red, which is very sexy. It can be worn to a dance especially well, because you will be able to sneak in without anyone seeing you. But be sure you don't walk under an infra-red lamp because that's sure to give you away.

Another color that is beautiful is Ultra-Violet. If you would like to be seen from a distance, wear an ultra-violet nylon, you'll show up for a mile. Pea-green is very nice and also sun lamp pink. There are many different varieties to choose from, and you know that variety is the spice of life.

Washing your Nylons . . .

Taking care of your new nylon shirt is very important. How you wash it and protect it will depend on how it looks and wears. You should wash the nylon in boiling hot water directly after wearing it for a few months. This protects the shirt from acid perspiration that rot the fibers. If you don't like the color you bought, put a little blueing in the water, heaven only knows what will happen. After washing you should rinse it in ice cold water adding a teaspoon of vinegar, this brings out the color. After you do all this, the shirt will probably be shrunken out of shape so stretch it out and allow it to dry.

Don't dry your nylon with an ironing iron because this will burn it. Also don't put it in the sun to dry, because this will shrink it to midget size and if you aren't a midget you wouldn't like it. Protect your nylon shirt from Body Order (B.O.) by spraying it with that new deodorant, Phew. So next time you go into a drug store, look the druggist straight in the eye and say Phew.

Remember, if you want to look your best, buy a new nylon creation today. The only place you can buy these shirts is at Sears-Roebuck & Co., and if you buy them there you will be a Seers-Sucker.

Jim Taylor, noted jazz violinist, is sporting them this year.

Cinerama Movie Beats Feelovisor

By YVONNE YEARIAN

You now can take a dizzy ride on a roller coaster — sitting in a movie seat.

You'll gasp, get clammy hands. It's real.

It's Cinerama, the movie system of projecting pictures which gives an illusion of the third dimension depth. Its premiere was last week in New York City.

The film is projected on a curved screen. It's like looking into the bottom of a "U". The screen is about six times the size of the ones in ordinary theaters.

The image on the screen is not one picture. It really is three. In making the movie, the photographer uses a camera with three lenses. One looks straight ahead, a second to the left and a third to the right. The projection is the same way. You see three pictures joined together as one on the big screen. Because of the curve in the screen, you get the illusion of depth.

The most exciting sequence in the film, "This Is Cinerama," was the opening one. This took the audience on a roller coaster ride with all the realism of being in the front coaster seat.

New Dietician Has Good Background

"The food's much better this year," is the remark currently being heard on campus. And the reason the food is good is because of the efficiency of our new food manager, Miss Handy.

Miss Handy, a native of Massachusetts, has had much experience managing both dining halls and dorms. Previous to coming to Pacific she was head of dining hall and dorms at Stanford for nine years; she was also at University of Rochester for fifteen years. She studied at Simmons College in Boston and received her Master's degree at Columbia University.

Miss Handy says that she is very fond of California, and I'm sure California is equally fond of her.

Dean Bertholf Hosts First Faculty Fireside

The first in a series of Faculty Firesides was held Wednesday night, October 22, at Dean Bertholf's home.

It was an informal gathering of the students with Dean and Mrs. Bertholf acting as hosts. The discussion was concerned with the topic, "How Can I Keep My Religion and Still Believe What Science Teaches?"

These fireside gatherings are being promoted through the Campus Affairs Commission to bring about a more personal relationship between the faculty members and the students and to overcome the formal atmosphere of the classroom.

Both students and faculty members profit by these social gatherings where they all get together to become better acquainted.

This was the first fireside gathering and more are scheduled to come. They largely depend upon the interest of the students.

Editorial

Students have always looked forward to Homecoming as one of the two big weekends in the year.

It's always been our task during that time to put on a show for returning grads so that they will leave the campus in a happy, party spirit, feeling that college hasn't changed so much after all. The weekend has always been pushed by careful planning, much publicity, and resulting spontaneity.

This year something seems to have gone wrong. Homecoming was a chore, which was so time-consuming and bothersome that it was put off until the very last minute then thrown together and heaped into two exhausting days.

On this campus, which has always been crowded for events, a move was made last semester to do away with some of the homecoming tension and feverish activity. A Homecoming evaluating committee was set up to suggest easier plans of attack for the weekend. That group, however, didn't have a chance to function, for Homecoming wasn't an advance-planned event this year.

In fact, there seemed a reluctance to take any responsibility. And once the responsibility was forced—procrastination was the theme of the day.

The whole celebration was one big-head-ache of confusion. Dates were changed at the last minute, hours were changed, functions were changed, outside help was loaned to insure the success of the affair.

I predict that there will be another round of Homecoming evaluating committee meetings soon to try to correct the situation that occurred this year. Perhaps the experience of last minute rush-rush-rush will be the basis for an early-planned and well-worked out 1953 Homecoming that will be fun for everyone—planners and celebrants alike.

Special Events Boost Sea-Going Theme

Since COP is playing San Diego Navy tomorrow night, the theme of the pre-game and half-time activities will be sea-going.

The A Cappella Choir will sing the Navy Hymn. The Naval electronics drill team and band from Treasure Island (which won first place in the Homecoming Parade) will perform as will the Marine drill team, second place winners in the homecoming parade.

Representing the Navy from Stockton will be the Stockton group Pacific Reserve Fleet Drill Team.

The Civilian Naval Reserve group will also produce its showmanship ability. It should be noted that this drill team is composed of volunteers who plan and work up these stunts on their own time. Most of the officers for the team are chosen by the men themselves.

Chuck Tolhurst and Ted Tiss, newly appointed special events directors are credited with the organization of these activities. Aiding them are Beverly Lloyd and Carol Young.

I am a little card.
During card stunts, please watch the yell leader. He will tell you what to do with me.

Please clip the instruction sheet to the person in front of you.

Please hold me lengthwise at eye level.

Please make sure you are showing my right color.

Be sure that you are doing the correct stunt number.

When the last stunt has been completed, please do not throw me, I have a job to do next week.

Letters to the Editor

Circulation Editor
(Whoever you may be)
Pacific Weekly:

Would you please put my name on the circulation list of your fine paper and also give my love to the entire staff. Thanking you in advance, I remain,

CLARK CHATFIELD

USNTC
San Diego 33, Calif.

Speaking for the rally committee, I want to thank all of the students at COP for their excellent cooperation with the card stunts at the San Jose game.

Every one who saw the stunts said that they were the most perfect and best stunts in COP's history. This would not have been possible without the students' cooperation. We are looking forward to the same quality of cooperation at the San Diego Navy and Santa Clara games.

Signed: "PECK"

Dear Editor:

As a one time Pacific yell leader, I saw something Saturday night that warmed the cockles of my heart.

So often at the end of a game, each rooting section rushes into its hymn with scant regard to the hymn of the other school. But that Saturday night, as Pacific's rooting section was about to sing, the high school band swung into the Texas Tech hymn. Instead of going on and drowning out by sheer weight of numbers this music across the way, Pacific's leaders held up the singing until their band was finished. What is more, the members of our rooting section stayed, listened, and then sang our hymn.

It used to be that closing ceremonies were pre-arranged by the yell leaders and rally committee to prevent the clash of singing. Perhaps as a result of the spontaneous and courteous action of that Saturday night, we are ready to re-establish this courtesy as a regular practice.

Sincerely,
HAROLD S. JACOBY, '28

Awards Terminate H'coming Week Work

Last Saturday afternoon trophies were awarded to the outstanding floats and comic skits in the Homecoming Parade.

In the float division West Hall took first, North Hall second and the Combined Sorority Group, third. The winners in the comic skits were Rho Lambda Phi first and Alpha Kappa Phi second.

Trophies for house decorations were awarded to the fraternities with Omega Phi first, Rho Lambda Phi second, and Archania, third.

the family's nextdoor neighbors:
"We are going to move away. Mother and daddy found a house they think it is very nice. I hope you have a nice time without us, too."

"I have the most horrible feeling that no one's noticing me"

Frosh Queen Enjoys H'coming Parade Ride

Phyllis Pyle, the candidate sponsored by North Hall, won the closely contested race for freshman queen of homecoming.

A 5' 5" brunette who hails from Orinda, Phyllis is an education major; but she also loves to ski and spends as much time as possible at Soda Springs.

When asked how she enjoyed the parade she replied, "Oh, it was lots of fun!"

Pete Davanis Receives Order Of Tiger's Tail

Pete Davanis, a Pacific graduate, was presented with an honorary Student Body card and a framed embossed certificate at the President's Convocation on October 16. The certificate read, "To Pete Davanis, the royal order of the Tiger Tail for meritorious service to his college."

Pete played the role of Tommy Tiger for numerous years as an undergraduate and also after his commencement from Pacific. It was through his portrayal of our mascot that the great tradition of Tommy Tiger was built up.

Because of Pete's spirited duties and services to the college, the Senate felt that he should receive this award.

FISH, ANYONE

West Hall has everything — including their own fish pond.

Monday night, November 20, Barbara Bliss was minding her own business and lo and behold what does she find but a bunch of fish swimming around in the oddest place. Well, to say the very least, it caused a minor sensation on first floor. Where the fish came from is a complete mystery.
